

Similes

A simile is a comparison of two unlike people or things using the words like or as. Similes often contain exaggeration.

examples: John is as strong as a bull.

Mary is like a human calculator.

In the first sentence, John's strength is compared to an ox.

In the second sentence, Mary must have great math skills because she's being compared to a calculator.

Write six similes about six different people you know.
Be sure all of your similes are kind and positive.
