 - a) The right to food.
 - b) The right to personal hygiene and clean clothes.
 - c) The right to be loved and cared for.
 - d) The right to be supported and helped with her schoolwork at home.
2.
 - a) Eunice was stereotyped because she was untidy and neglected. The children thought that she was strange and did not like her.
 - b) Eunice was judged on her untidy appearance and the children disliked her.
 - c) Eunice was discriminated against because she was untidy and no child wanted to associate with her.

Notes

The violation of children's rights is a serious issue. It is important for children to be aware of their rights and know when they are violated and respond appropriately to any violation to protect themselves.
